Smart Speed

Smart Speed is a variable, wireless light barrier system which allows time measurements to be made over various distances. It consists of 5 light barriers with appropriate levels (including stationary), a PDA for the display and management of data along with 40 registered armbands.

The light barriers can be placed completely variably so that different running routes can be implemented. By means of the bracelets, the individual players can be registered and their times can be identified with the PDA.